DRIVER HARRUB'S SUIT AGAINST EMMELUTH.

The Jehu Asks for Big Damages From Merchant.

THE OUTCOME OF AN ASSAULT.

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED TO ASSUAGE FOR THE STROKE OF A WHIP.

Arguments, Feet and Voice Break the Solemnity of the Supreme Court—Something About Sedateness.

Some weeks ago John Emmeluth was fined $25 and costs in the police court for striking Hackdriver J. E. Harrub with a whip.

Mr. Emmeluth claimed that two men in Harrub's hack had insulted Mrs. Emmeluth.

Late yesterday afternoon Harrub instituted civil proceedings against Emmeluth to recover $2,500. The following is the complaint:

"J. E. Harrub vs. John Emmeluth.
To the Honorable Abram Stephanus Humphreys, First Judge of the First Judicial Circuit—

"The undersigned complains of John Emmeluth, defendant, residing in Honolulu, in the island of Oahu, territory of Hawaii, and claims of him the sum of $2,500 because of injuries done by said plaintiff to the person and feelings of the plaintiff in that the defendant did on the fifth day of August, A. D. 1900, between the hours of 5 and 6 in the afternoon in said Honolulu, maliciously, forcibly and without any provocation whatever inflict a corporal injury on the plaintiff, to-wit, a cut on the face, which plaintiff alleges was done in contravention of his private rights under the laws.

"Wherefore, the undersigned prays judgment and his damages by him sustained by reason of the committing of said injury to be adjudged against him, together with the costs of this action, and he asks the process of this court to cite said defendant to appear and answer his complaint before a jury of the county at the November term of this court unless sooner disposed of by judicial authority."

The supreme court yesterday morning heard arguments in the case of Wahluwa Sugar Company vs. Wahluwa Agricultural Company. Justice Galbraith and Attorney J. W. Cathcart and A. F. Judd constituted the court.
Chief Justice Fear and Justice Perry being disqualified.

In the afternoon the maritime collision case of the bark Wm. Carson against Wilder's steamer Claudine was before the court.

Attorney E. B. McClanahan's voice ruffled the new gowns of the justices.
Mr. McClanahan has a habit of placing his feet upon a chair when addressing the court. He means no contempt, but his pedal extremities, like his voice, seem perplexing, at least, to their owner. There is such a thing as being se-date, even in a court room.

Judge Estee yesterday rendered a decision in Parkinson et al. against the schooner Enterprise. It was a suit for wages by the sailors of the vessel named. Captain Freitach was the sole witness for the ship. The decision was in favor of the sailors, the ship besides having to pay a proctor's fee of $20. Davis & Gear for the libellants; T. McCants Stewart for the captain and libellee.

Judge Estee of the United States district court yesterday naturalized Harry T. Mills, E. L. Doyle and K. Nielson.

Thanks of Regatta.

Honolulu, Sept. 19, 1900.
The Republican, Honolulu—Gentlemen: In behalf of the regatta committee I beg to thank you for kind services rendered in assisting to make a success of the regatta, both at Pearl harbor and in Honolulu harbor, on the 8th and 15th inst. Yours very truly, J. F. SOPER,
For Regatta Committee.

An Hawaiian Killed On the Railroad.

Kupanihi, a Painter, Straggled in Front of Passenger Train—Was Almost Instantly Killed.

Kupanihi, an Hawaiian, was almost instantly killed last evening by being struck by the Waiaina train when just opposite the Kalihi detention camp.
Witnesses say that the man was drunk and staggering along by the track when the train came along on its way to Honolulu. The engineer apparently saw the man, as the bell and whistle were sounded and an effort made to slow down.

The engine struck the man and he was knocked quite a distance. The train was stopped and backed to the scene of the accident, where the man was lying alongside the track. He was dead when the train men got to him.
After Kupanihi was struck he got on his feet and then fell dead. His skull was found to be fractured and one of his legs badly mangled.

Engineer Cottrell was in charge of the engine at the time of the accident, and did everything in his power to avoid it.

Kupanihi was about 30 years of age and a painter by occupation. He, with his wife, resided at the camp at Kalihi.
A coroner's jury was empaneled to sit on the case.

PORTUGUESE PROTESTANTS WILL CELEBRATE TONIGHT.

FOUNDING OF THE MISSION HERE TEN YEARS AGO TO BE COMMEMORATED.

The Exercises Will Be of a High Order and Will Be Held in the New Church This Evening.

The Portuguese citizens of the Protestant faith will this evening celebrate the tenth anniversary of the arrival of the first Portuguese missionaries and the founding of the first protestant Portuguese mission. The event will take place at the church, at the corner of Runcabow and Miller streets.
The anniversary exercises will be of a high order.

Rev. A. V. Soares, the present pastor of the church, will speak on the future possibilities of the mission. J. H.
Atherton will probably speak on the history of the church. The other speakers of the evening will be Rev. J.
Leahey, Frank Damon, Frank Cook and Rev. R. K. Baptiste of Hilo.
There will also be several musical numbers on the program. After the literary and musical exercises there will be a reception and general become-acquainted party in the school house across the street from the church. Refreshments will be served.

The first Protestant Portuguese missionaries came to the islands ten years ago. They were Rev. E. M. Pires, Rev.
R. K. Baptiste and Rev. A. V. Soares.
When they arrived they found matters in a sad plight, a Sunday school being the only thing of a religious nature in existence among the Protestant Portuguese of this city. Nothing daunted, they set to work with a will, holding services in the old drill shed. In a short time money was forthcoming and the Miller street chapel was built; four months after their arrival in Honolulu.

About four years ago the mission grew so large that the chapel was not sufficient to accommodate the congregation and it was decided to build the edifice which they now occupy. The erection of the building was rushed and Rev. A. V. Soares, who now had charge of the mission and he began holding services in the new church.

The church is quite a handsome building. The main auditorium is a high, airy room with good acoustics.
It has a seating capacity of about 200.
Back of the auditorium is the Sunday school room, which opens on the main room with folding doors.

The primary department, which is still further back, opens in turn on the Sunday school room, uniting the whole ground floor and giving a seating capacity of over 500.

Rev. R. K. Baptiste removed to Hilo some time ago, where he has been doing excellent work. They also have a very pretty little church and parsonage at Hilo and the work is progressing very rapidly in that field.

THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL DOES SOME BUSINESS.

TRANSPORTS MUST PAY PILOT- AGE AND WATER SUP- PLY RATES.

Assessor Shaw Has Troubles Which He Submits for Interpretation —Church and School Property Involved.

Government transports entering the harbor of Honolulu will hereafter be required to pay the prescribed assessment for pilotage as well as for the water furnished them. Such was the decision of the governor's council yesterday after the question had been submitted by Harbor Master Fuller. The law providing for the fees, which has usually applied to merchantmen, was passed some time ago. The council did not wish to discriminate in the matter and the only thing that could be done in the premises was to carry out the provisions of the law and recommend that the usual charges should be made.

The governor explained his reasons for not interfering in the case of Fulmer Oremus, convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged at Hilo, and who has been granted a reprieve until October 25th by the supreme court.

The governor said there was a doubt arising in the wording of the enabling act as to his own authority in the matter, and under the circumstances referred the question to the justices of the supreme court, who forthwith granted the reprieve.

Tax Assessor Shaw, through Treasurer Lansing, submitted a question as to the extent of power vested in the assessor in levying upon personal property for the collection of taxes. The attorney general will be called upon to settle the much-mooted question.

Whether church and school property, not used for religious and educational purposes, is taxable was a matter that was also somewhat puzzling to the tax assessor. It is understood that when such property is used for its specific purpose it is exempt from taxation.
The attorney general will also be asked to decide this matter.

No action was taken as to the election of a delegate to congress at the coming election.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Atkinson reported that the Aala school house is nearing completion and would soon be in first class order. It will soon be opened to the scholars and it is the intention to use the building as a mixed school, in which both boys and girls will be admitted. Mr. Atkinson reported the enrollment of the schools as very large.

Land Commissioner Brown brought up the Leslie land and title matter and recommended a settlement on a basis of 25 per cent of its present value, including a quit claim deed. What will actually be done in the matter yet remains to be decided.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

Honolulu Y. M. C. A.'s Plans for the Coming Winter.

The Y. M. C. A. has issued a very neat little brochure entitled "Take a Look Inside," in which is set forth the winter's work outlined by the association. The book tells of the entertainment provided for young men, of the free reading room, games, and receptions provided for young men. For those of an athletic turn there is a splendid gymnasium which is very fully described. The educational plan of the association is treated very fully, describing the various classes and courses of instruction arranged for the coming winter. The brochure is handsomely illustrated with half-tones from photographs.
In its printing it says: "We invite the attention of the young men of Honolulu to the advantages of membership in our association. We think we can direct you to make your leisure time both pleasant and profitable. Look over our plans and arrange to take up something either in the way of study or recreation."
